

Felicia Malter, CPA, CGMA

Partner

📞 314.290.3249

@ felicia.malter@rubinbrown.com

Felicia Malter is the Partner-In-Charge of RubinBrown's Assurance Services Group. She provides comprehensive audit and business consulting services to clients in the professional services and manufacturing and distribution industries. Felicia also serves as the Partner on a large number of employee benefit plans, including defined benefit, defined contribution and health and welfare plans.

Specific Experience/Expertise

- Audit and consulting to:
 - Private corporations
 - Publicly-traded corporations
- Audits of employee benefit plans

Education

- B.S., Accounting, Indiana University

Professional Organizations

- Member, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
 - Past Chair, Professional & Personal Liability Insurance Programs Committee, AICPA
- Member, Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants
- Member, Accounting and Auditing Committee, Baker Tilly International, North America Region

Professional Accomplishments, Awards & Publications

- 40 Under 40, St. Louis Business Journal (2008)
- Women to Watch – Experienced Leader, Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants (2008)

Community Involvement

- VP of Finance, Board of Directors, Jewish Federation of St. Louis
- Past Chair, Board of Directors, Jewish Community Center
- Board Member, The Foundation for Barnes-Jewish Hospital
- Past Chair, Board of Directors, St. Louis Chapter, Ronald McDonald House Charities