

Jessica Seiffert, CMI

Partner

📞 314.290.3495

@ jessica.seiffert@rubinbrown.com

Jessica Seiffert is a Partner in RubinBrown's State and Local Tax Services Group. She has over twelve years of professional accounting experience and concentrates in the area of state sales and use taxes. She leads the sales/use tax compliance practice at RubinBrown. Jessica is experienced in the areas of state tax audits, tax planning and research, tax compliance, and tax review as well as personal property taxes. She has worked with data and automation software packages such as Microsoft Excel, Access, Avalara, Vertex, Marketplace Fulfillment Platforms, Power BI, RPA and is experienced with web-based tax research tools.

Jessica has made presentations at various educational forums such as the Associated Industries of Missouri annual tax conference and RubinBrown sponsored seminars.

Specific Experience/Expertise

- Missouri Department of Revenue – sales and use tax auditor
- Multi-state state sales and use tax audit defense
- Tax planning and research
- Tax compliance
- Multi-state business personal property tax

Education

- B.S.B.A., Accounting, Southeast Missouri State University

Professional Organizations

- Certified Member, Institute for Professionals in Taxation
- Member, Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants

Community Involvement

- Volunteer, Ronald McDonald House
- Volunteer, Volunteer Lawyers and Accountants for the Arts
- Volunteer, St. Louis Zoo
- Member, RubinBrown Outreach