Kevin McGrew is an Investment Advisor with RubinBrown Advisors and Partner with RubinBrown LLP. Kevin works closely with clients, helping them define their objectives and leading them in the development and execution of comprehensive financial plans. He has been in the financial services industry since 1987, and prior to that spent eight years in public accounting.

Kevin believes in lifelong learning and is committed to the financial well-being of his clients. He understands that many of the financial decisions we make have an emotional component as well.

Kevin joined RubinBrown through the combination of Wealth Management Advisors in May 2020 and is the Partner-in-Charge of the firm's Leawood office.
