

John Woodbury, CPA

Partner

☎ 312.705.1748

@ john.woodbury@rubinbrown.com

John Woodbury is a Partner in RubinBrown's Tax Services Group. He has more than 30 years experience advising clients in the area of Federal and State taxation. John has worked with real estate developers, owners, managers, syndicators and investors to understand their unique needs and develop strategies to minimize the income tax impact resulting from their business operations. He has extensive experience in all phases of real estate. He has spent nearly 20 years consulting in the field of affordable housing and related matters.

Specific Experience/Expertise

- Real estate development
- Due diligence engagements
- Entrepreneurial businesses

Education

- Master of Taxation, DePaul University
- B.S., Accounting, Northern Illinois University
- B.S., Psychology, Bradley University

Professional Organizations

- Member, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- Member, Illinois Society of Certified Public Accountants

Community Involvement

- Alumni Board Member, Delta Upsilon International Fraternity
- Undergraduate Chapter Advisor Delta Upsilon International Fraternity